

documented ISA forms and encodings selected decoded forms and operand widths operation and encoding policy registers, constants, memory, and entry states resource and fault policy well-formed programs within the bound length or cost limit semantically valid candidates precondition and execution observed costs

observation and cost order